9am • Collection
We arrive at your York accommodation. Your driver-guide loads every bag, so you settle into comfort from the very first minute.
- 02

Nothing to decide in advance. On the morning, your guide helps you pick the route that suits the day and the weather.
- 03

- 04

Crossing the border
One day, two countries. Crossing into Scotland is always a moment worth marking.
- 05

Lunch, your way
A fine café, a proper pub, or the best fish and chips. Or none at all — the choice is always yours.

Door to door
In Edinburgh we drive to the front door of your accommodation and carry your bags to the step.

Choose your way north

Two very different days between York and Edinburgh. Decide on the morning — your guide will steer you to the one that suits.

OPTION ONE

The high country

Through the Yorkshire Dales and central Britain to Hadrian's Wall — rolling moor-top roads, drystone walls, and the great Roman frontier.

Yorkshire Dales

Hadrian's Wall

Durham

OPTION TWO

The wild coast

The spectacular Northumberland coastline — Bamburgh Castle above its dramatic beach, and the tidal crossing to Lindisfarne Holy Island.

Because the tour is always private, there is never any compromise for other people. It's your day, at your pace.
