A DAY TO REMEMBER

"By the end of the day, you'll be relaxed in the knowledge that you've seen some of the most beautiful parts of Yorkshire, England and the United Kingdom."

DISCOVER THE DALES

Twenty-six dales, each with its own character

The Yorkshire Dales is made up of 26 distinct valleys — dales, in the local dialect — and each has its own look and feel. During the day we get out and explore several times, as much or as little as you prefer.

We take in the famous names, then slip away to the small, rarely-visited dales that most travellers never see.

Wharfedale

One of the great classic dales — broad, green and framed by limestone.

Wensleydale

Wide, storied country of waterfalls, castles and market towns.

The hidden dales

Tucked-away valleys, seldom visited — quietly the highlight of the day.
